Unity Among the Student Body

21 YEARS AGO ...

On September 4, 1945, 522 excited students entered Falls Church High School for the first time. Each one felt the thrill of its newness and was anxious to explore every part of the building.

A few months earlier, on May 18, the cornerstone was laid. It contained wine for strength, corn for growth, oil for wisdom, a roster of Presidents of the United States, a Bible, a copy of a United States history, and a list of the original students.

Students soon became acquainted with the building. There were two shower rooms, two dressing rooms, a multiple purpose room, fourteen classrooms, a home economics department, commercial department, two laboratories, and a library. Also, 450 lockers were ordered which arrived in March, 1946.

In September of that first year, plans began for the presentation of the first printed yearbook. "A printed book in an attractive binding carrying the school colors and abounding in pictures which will truly depict the people and events of the school year is being planned," said JAGUAR '46 Editor Rita Crone.

The famous Falls Church High band began with practice sessions during third period. In those days the band consisted of one saxophone, a set of drums, two clarinets, one trombone, one cornet, and one girl member who played the piano. The school was proud of the band itself, but heads swelled a little more at the thought of having three vocalists also.

The Jaguars compiled a 4-6-1 record in football that year. They stomped Manassas Vocational School 20-6, but lost to Montgomery Blair, 6-0. Other rivals included Culpeper County High School and Charlestown High in Charlestown, West Virginia. The basketball team didn't fare so well then. Their record was 0-5, bowing to Fairfax twice, 57-14 and 60-19.

Even twenty-one years ago, students inquired about an honor system. A committee was set up to write an Honor Code. This code remained in effect until March of 1966.

The October, 1946 issue of the Jaguar Journal reported: "At the present there are 246 boys and 276 girls enrolled in the school making a total of 522 students. This is a grand school now, but after it is completed, no better school will be found, not only in this state, but in any other as well."

As the students in '45 established tradition and honor, so, too, did we add to our heritage. The thrill of newness is gone, but the lasting feeling of tradition has lingered. In 21 years the size of Falls Church High has changed considerably. Classrooms, a new library, cafeteria, a gym, and auditorium have been added. Using these facilities are 1,466 students.

The 1965-1966 school year opened as cheerleaders, on their lofty perches at the Hillwood Entrance, greeted the students in song, lifting spirit and enthusiasm for all. "This is the Year" posters, bulletin boards, and bumper stickers prophesied the greatest year in Jaguar history.

On September 9, a history-making bonfire burned for two days. Using a class competition idea, each grade tried to bring in more wood than the other. It was a close race, but the Sophomores won.

The Student Council Association took unprecedented steps in improving the school, as well as instilling in students a deeper appreciation of it. In February the S.C.A. sponsored a Pride Assembly, acquainting students with the traditions that have been passed down, and the importance of spirit in sportsmanship, honor, and scholarship.

"This year's yearbook has much the same objectives as the one twenty-one years ago," says '66 JAGUAR editor, Pat Dietrich. The book has been expanded from 72 pages to more than 200 pages.

The athletic teams proved to be a source of pride this year. The gridgers compiled a 3-7 record, the best in 10 years. Wrestling '65-'66 nearly became the only undefeated team in the history of F.C.H.S. Only W-L marred the record by handing them a loss in the last match of the season. Who could ever forget this year's basketball season? Long remembered will be the record of 17-3, with all 3 losses at the hands of Woodson.

Honor Systems and Honor Codes were still being discussed after 21 years. An S.C.A. committee was set up to study the Honor Code and a more practical one was devised. "As a member of the student body of Falls Church High, I take upon myself the responsibility of acting in such a manner as to reflect my personal honor and bring esteem to my school." This new code was voted on by the students and passed by a 90 per cent majority.

FALLS CHURCH HIGH SCHOOL 1945—1966

TODAY

'66 Jaguar Salutes

One hundred and five years of service to Falls Church High School are represented by these five people: Mrs. Mable Chapman, Miss Alpha Spitzer, Mrs. Frances Crum, Mr. Frank Mishou, and Mrs. Bernice Lilly. They entered our school when its doors were first opened and have become a part of all that F.C.H.S. represents. They remember the school in its early years and have watched with pride its growth and progress.

105 Years of Service

Mr. Frank Mishou, after teaching some 3,000 FC students, still says, "I like the people you come in contact with here. This school has congenial surroundings and a fine, hard working staff."

A government teacher, Mr. Mishou has been elected Senior Class Sponsor for twenty years. He has served as co-director of graduation ceremonies for twenty years also. That Seniors are given their actual diplomas at graduation, rather than a blank paper as is the case in most schools, is a tradition about which Mr. Mishou feels very proud. Falls Church High School is proud, too, of the tradition of Mr. Mishou.

Mrs. Frances Crum has always been a proponent of change and improvement in Falls Church High School. To her we owe our fight song, an improved newspaper, and our art program.

The situation for the Art Department in her first year was, in her own words, "no sink, no paper, no paint, and no supplies." Thanks to Mrs. Crum, the art department has mushroomed, and the annual art show, which she initiated, is a big event in the school year.

There was a time when girls practiced basketball in the cafeteria and physical education equipment consisted of a couple of basketballs and softballs. That was when Mrs. Bernice Lilly laid the base for one of the top physical education programs in the county.

"It's been fun; I wouldn't take anything for the experience. We've made so much progress in physical education. We have something new every year."

For over twenty years, "biology" has meant Mrs. Mable Chapman. Coming from Jefferson with her tarantula spider and her Georgian drawl, she has graced the lab ever since.

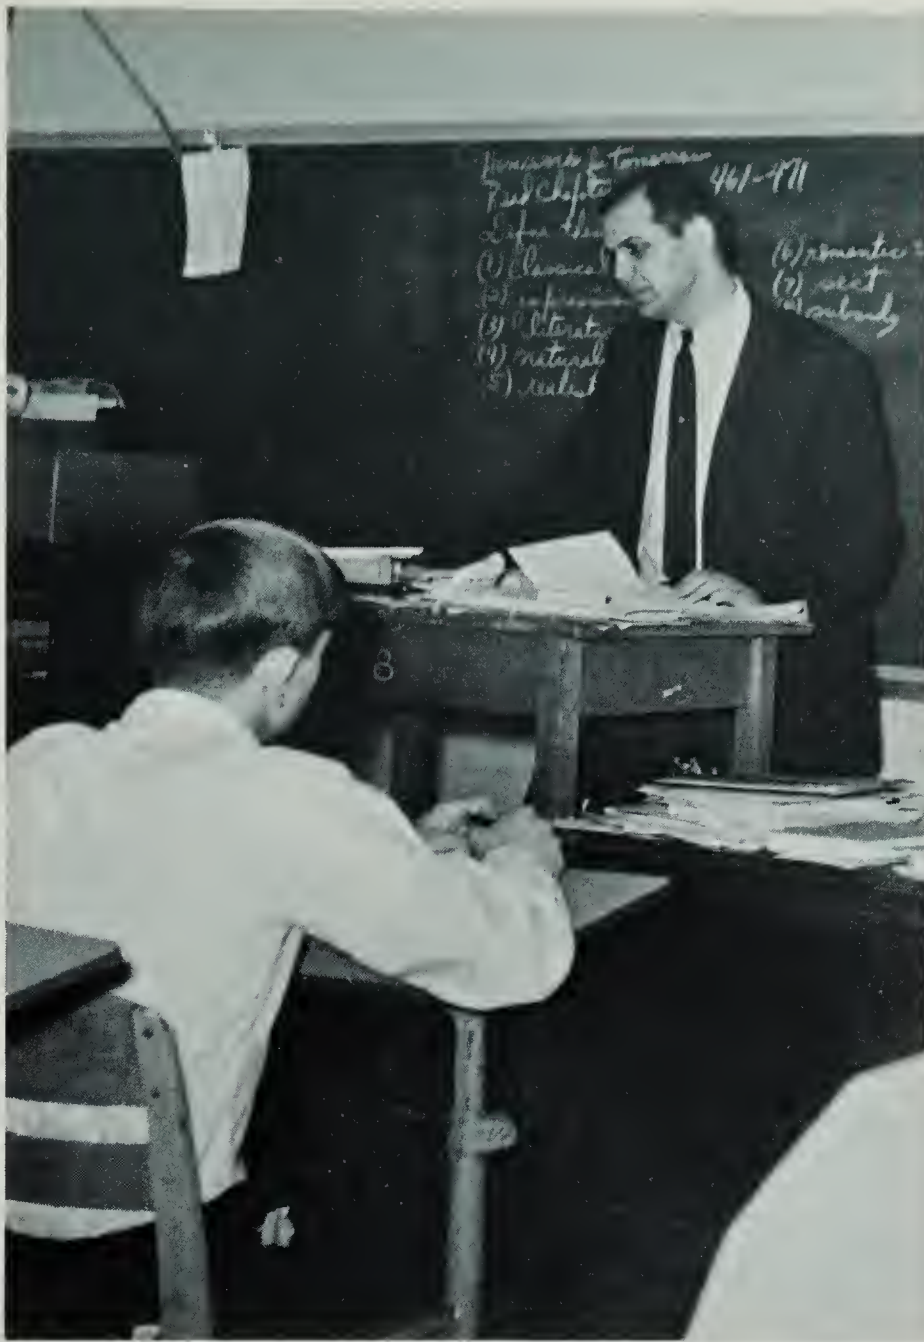

A long time sponsor of the National Honor Society, Mrs. Chapman fondly reminds her students of her "one-third" involved in their grades.

"Falls Church is a way of life with me," said Mrs. Chapman, and the feeling is mutual.

Of the fine teachers who have been our mainstays, Miss Alpha Spitzer has the distinction of being the only one who participated in the laying of the cornerstone. In teaching Vocational Office Training, she has started hundreds of students in office jobs which they would not have had otherwise.

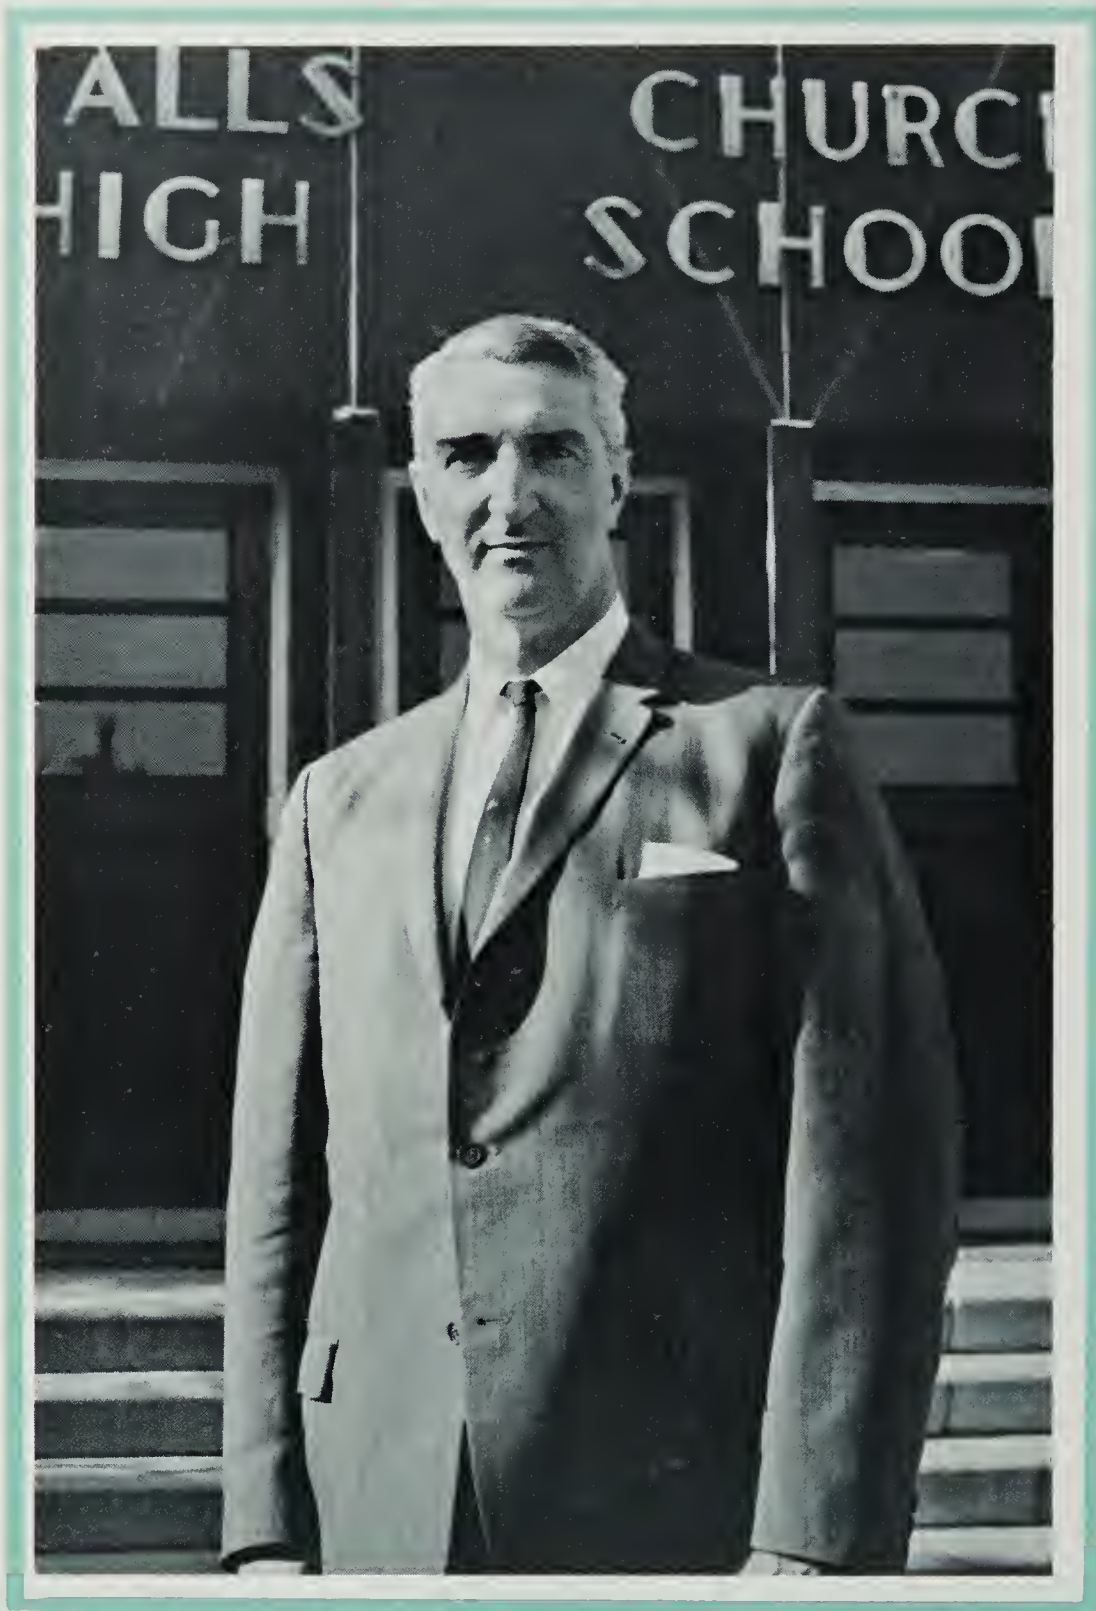

Miss Spitzer gave the reason why teachers stay at Falls Church. "Some people might say I'm in a rut being here after all these years. I could have been here, there, and yonder but I'm not one who feels that the grass is greener on the other side."

First A Foundation

MR. THOMAS D. TODD
Principal

Mr. Thomas D. Todd, Principal of Falls Church High School, has made a lasting impression on students and faculty. His quiet, friendly manner has been appreciated, and his willingness to listen and to help is a welcome trait.

Mr. Todd received his B.A. from the University of Richmond and his M.A. from the University of Michigan. In World War II he was in the Navy and is now retired with the rank of Commander.

As a teacher, Mr. Todd taught at Warrenton High School from 1937 to 1941. During that time he coached football, basketball, baseball, and track. In 1947 he coached at Falls Church High, and was Director of Health and Physical Education for twelve years. After spending five years as Assistant Principal at J.E.B. Stuart, he returned to Falls Church High School. We hope he's here to stay!

Mr. Arthur Valotto is rapidly becoming a cornerstone at Falls Church High. Students are impressed by his genuine interest in the student body and school. His sly "Oh, no, not you again," grimace has become as familiar as the Jaguar and its spots.

One of Mr. Valotto's important jobs is the sponsorship of the S.C.A. Much of the credit for the effectiveness of this organization belongs to him. His help has been greatly appreciated.

A graduate of West Virginia University, he taught in Portsmouth, Virginia; was athletic director at Falls Church, and was Assistant Principal at Madison for two years before returning to Falls Church High School.

MR. ARTHUR VALOTTO
Assistant Principal for Administration

Mr. Leland Arthur Vliet's quiet and reserved personality reflects his deep and admirable enthusiasm for Falls Church High School.

He is a graduate of George Washington University with a masters degree in Economics. He first came to Falls Church in 1947 to teach in the Social Studies Department, but in 1962 he left to become Assistant Principal of Robert E. Lee High School, where he remained until returning here in 1964.

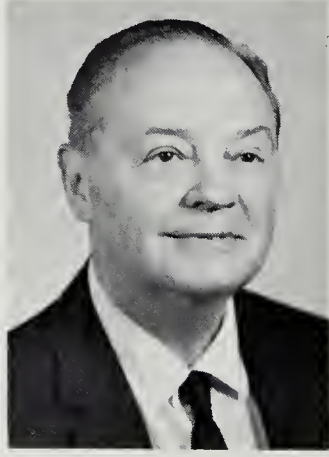

Mr. Vliet has become a constant visitor in the classrooms, focusing his attention on teaching methods and training for higher education. He has become a strong force in the improvement of our school.

MRS. RUBY POWERS
Guidance Secretary

A source of solace to anxious Seniors, troubled Juniors, baffled Sophomores, and confused Freshmen is the guidance office door which is always open. This year has kept our guidance staff increasingly busy with college applications, S.A.T. tests, scheduling, and numerous other jobs.

The small, pink conference slips are constant reminders of the continuous interest displayed by the counselors. Only one visit to their bustling office explains why counselors have no time to rest.

Librarian

MRS. RUTH RYAN
Assistant Librarian

This year over one thousand new books were added to our library collection, bringing our acquisitions more nearly in line with the national standard for schools, and giving us nine books per student.

English and Social Study teachers provided the library with much of its business. It is well stacked with reference books for term papers and popular novels for book reports. The library is not limited specifically to books; it has a collection of teaching and appreciation records ranging from foreign literature to music appreciation.

Reading Development

MISS MARY
DICKENSON

Reading Teacher

Poor reading habits, a problem for many students, was handled by Miss Dickenson, a new teacher at Falls Church High School. The aim of the department was to help students in reading techniques and comprehension. Such instruction has proved very beneficial and has increased the learning abilities of those involved.

*The mechanized teaching of reading proves

Visiting Teacher

MRS. LOUISE
RIGDON

Visiting Teacher

Mrs. Louise Rigdon acts as an important link between the school, the home, and the community. As a member of the staff of the Fairfax County Assistant Superintendant for Instruction, she offers a specialized service for each student under her supervision. With her help many Falls Church students have been able to recover from their illnesses and resume their school work with little difficulty.

Originally from McKenny, Virginia, Mrs. Rigdon taught in North Carolina and Southern Virginia before coming to Fairfax County and later Falls Church.

Language, literature, and linguistics were the pursuits of English students at Falls Church High School. Freshmen assimilated correct grammar, Sophomores discovered Tolstoy, Juniors tackled term papers and Seniors conquered Shakespeare—all under the guidance of the English Department.

Eighteen members of the Advanced Placement class sought college credit by participating in an intensive study of selected works from world literature. These students could be recognized by the numerous anthologies which were their constant companions.

Supplementing the regular English courses this year was a new paperback series, the Laureate Editions, which were used on all grade levels. A television set, to be used for educational programs, and an overhead projector were part of the equipment purchased to improve teaching methods.

Two new teachers, Mrs. Harriet Hemby and Miss Joan Bourdeau brought the departmental membership to a total of twelve, to make it the largest department in the school.

Through Language

Mr. Moore prepares for his next class.

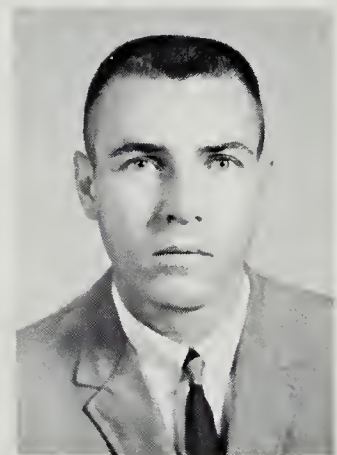

First year language students had a new advantage this year. The library acquired practice records for student use in learning vocabulary and dialogue. Another advantage was the language lab which gave the teachers an opportunity to listen to individual students and to correct their mistakes.

The French National Honor Society had a French Week in November. Its purpose was to inform the students about French culture and customs. Our foreign exchange student, Johannes Smit, and our A.F.S. club have also helped to stimulate interest in foreign languages and to increase friendship among other countries.

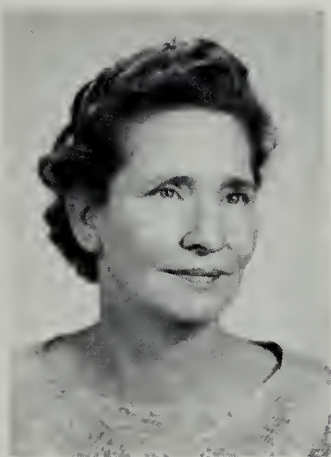

With the addition of three new teachers, the language department has expanded greatly and become a major part of the curriculum.

Most social studies classes have much in common. Each one is a challenge to students and provides the necessary knowledge to survive in a modern world.

This year, more than ever, the Social Studies Department focussed on world affairs. Many film strips were used to introduce students to problems in government and the making of history. Current events magazines were constant companions to students of all grades.

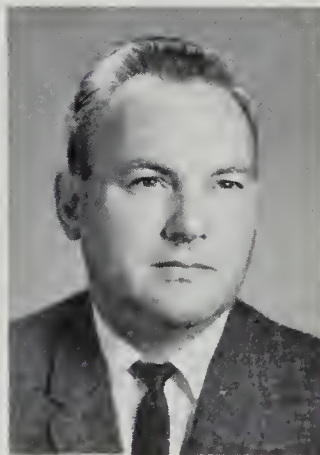

Several government classes took a field trip to the FBI Building, National Archives, and Bureau of Printing and Engraving. Such trips boosted student interest and understanding of essential governmental duties.

An equation-filled blackboard best symbolizes our Math Department. Math is a never-ending challenge to students for it requires accuracy, knowledge, deep thought, and concentration. It has grown from a simple system of counting to the vast science that arrives at principals based on logical proof.

This year math scholars were rewarded for their achievement by being chosen for membership in the Math Honor Society, an organization formed to give deserving students recognition as well as incentive for future studies in math.

Two teachers were new to the staff; Commander Heine and Mr. Wells, for a total of nine members in the department.

Exploring and Experimenting

Mr. Feather explains the intricacies of physics to interested seniors.

Black billows of smoke pouring out of room 210? Don't despair—it's merely chemistry students and their experiments. Hordes of girls flocking around the water fountain outside room 226? This is the day for dissecting. "Science teachers must learn to put up with such vagaries," comments Mr. Randy Scott, new chemistry teacher. With Mr. Scott (a former graduate of Falls Church High School), comes a new course, E.S.C.S., traditional chemistry and biology taught with more emphasis on laboratory techniques and experiment.

Trips to local and regional Science Fairs provided students with enjoyment as well as learning.

Students discard the "hunt and peck" system and develop skill in typing.

The foreign language department no longer has the distinction of having the only lab with booths for individual instruction. The Business Department spent thirty-two hundred dollars for such equipment to boost the concentration of students taking dictation.

Because the students now have access to the data processing equipment in the Main Office, a new course, office training, was offered this year. Now all office training students will be able to use equipment that may be helpful to them in their future years.

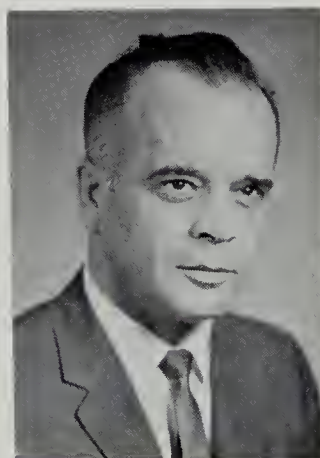

Typing I students have access to electric machines, where once only second year typists could use them. Miss Spitzer, department chairman, hopes to eventually replace all manual typewriters.

Expression Through Music

Various sounds try to escape the confines of the band room.

The sounds of music echoed forth and collided in the short hall between the choral department and the band room.

This year many students found music a pleasant break in the school day. Under the direction of Mrs. Hamilton, the girls chorus, concert choir, and madrigals were developed into accredited singing groups. They presented the annual Christmas choral concert and the madrigals performed in several assemblies.

The other half of the Music Department is the band. Constantly practicing, the members and Mr. Lunsford have built an organization of which Falls Church is proud. The band displayed its talent in numerous band concerts throughout the year.

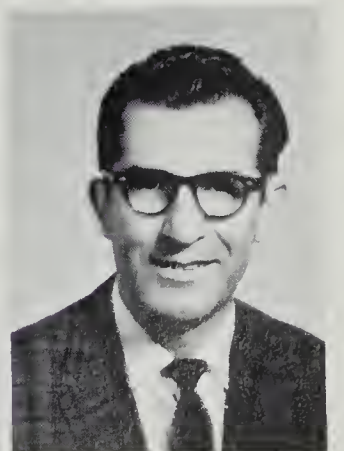

Another activity of the entire department was the annual musical. The production this year was "Oklahoma."

Madrigals spread glad tidings to the students during the Christmas season.

Rooms 204 and 206 were combined and completely refurnished this year to give the Art Department a new look. The fluorescent lighting was a feature praised by students and teachers alike. A new teacher, Mrs. Mary Cloe, taught students to use the kiln for making pottery.

For the first time, Art III and Art IV classes were separated to give the more advanced students a greater incentive. All classes experimented with a new textbook.

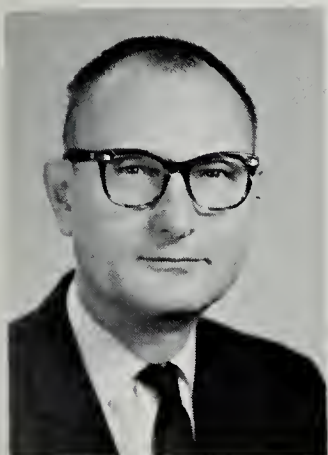

A movie, written, acted, and directed by Art III classes was produced, giving students a new opportunity for creativeness. As before, the advanced art students went to New York on the county field trip in the fall to view the art museums there. The department also sponsored the annual art fair where students' "masterpieces" were displayed in the upper Cherry Street Lobby.

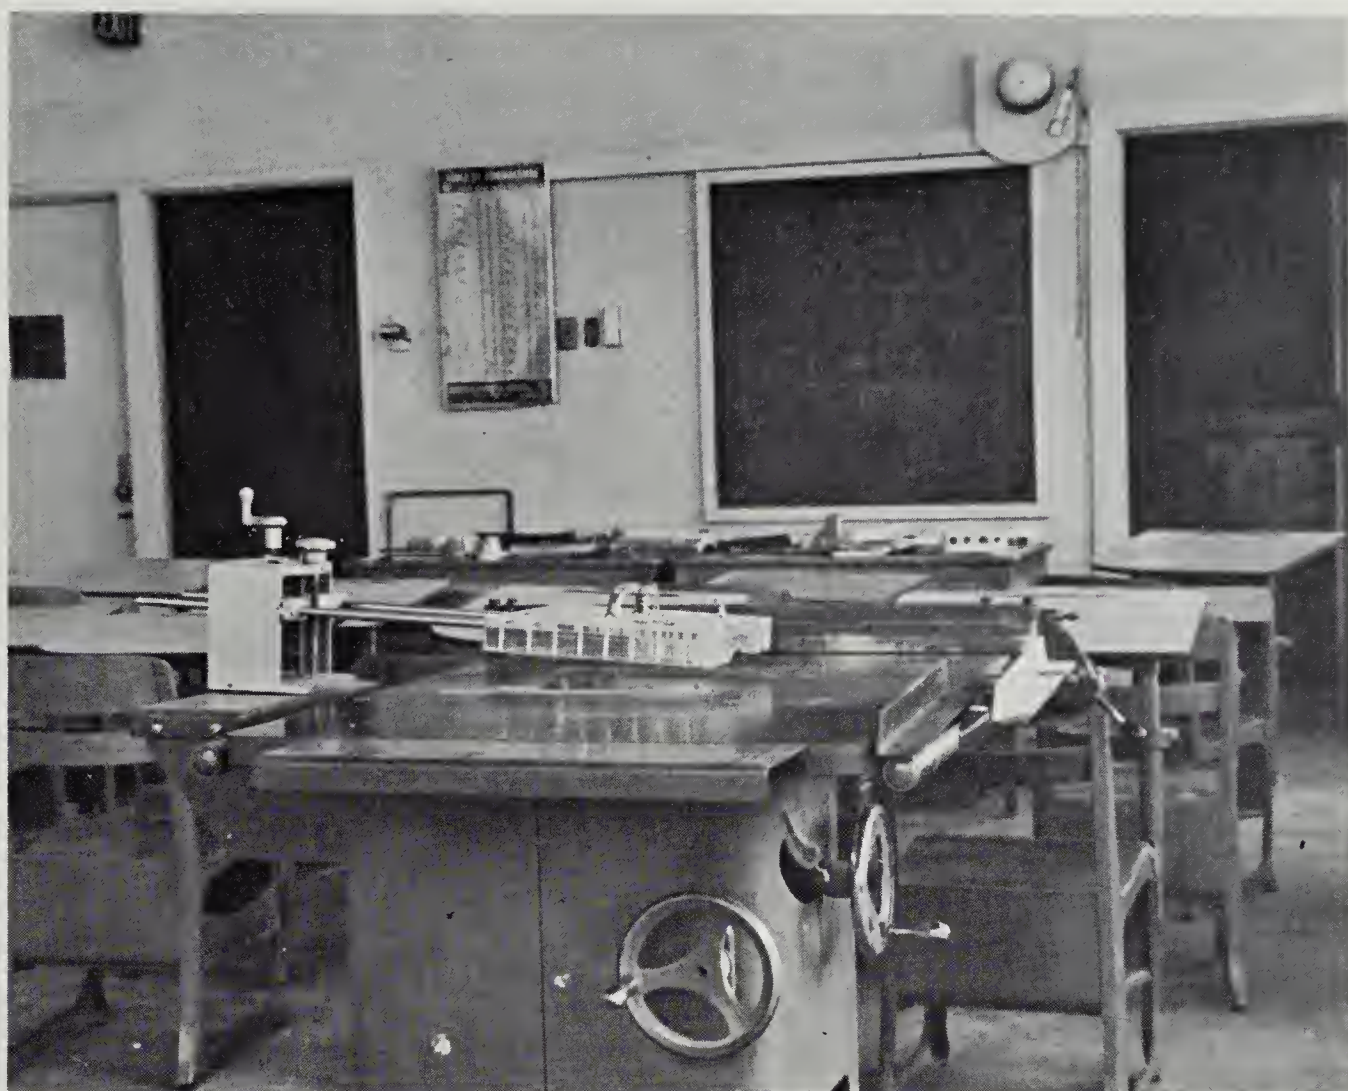

Students are taught new art techniques.

In its own separate building, the Industrial Arts Department deals with a specialized education. Craftmanship and technical skills in preparation for a trade are stressed. A new and helpful addition to the mechanical drawing classes has been the blueprinting machine. A completed blueprint can be turned out in a matter of seconds. Other techniques such as slides, films, and tape recorders have been used to help stimulate interest in the department.

The culinary arts took a turn for the better this year in the Home Economics Department. If girls were seen eating broccoli or bean sprout slaw for breakfast, or pommes de terre anna for lunch, it was not a whim of the cafeteria staff, but cooking day in the Home Ec. classes. Falls Church High School is on the "school plan" where new equipment is acquired every year. The P.T.A. purchased a dishwasher for our use, a welcome addition to the kitchens.

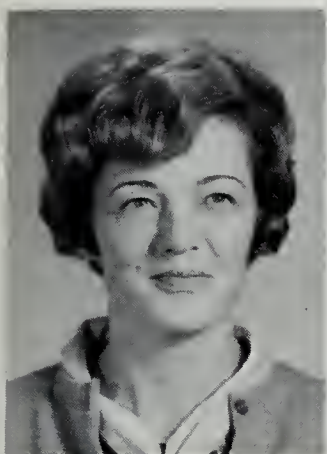

To interest more girls in high school Home Economics courses, about one hundred girls from Whittier visited this department in January. A fashion show featuring girls taking Home Ec. modeling their own sewing projects was held so that the Junior High girls could meet and talk with our students.

Home Ec. students enjoy a meal they have prepared.

"Boing . . . Swish . . . Zap!" Not leftovers from another Batman adventure but the sounds of archery, a new sport taught this year in the Physical Education Department. The new paraphernalia purchased for this activity greatly increased the value of our sports equipment.

The aim of the Physical Education Department this year was not only to teach fitness through exercises and sports, but also to promote good sportsmanship by having a variety of group activities. A new addition to the teaching staff, Mr. Robert Pruett, assisted in carrying out the department's goals.

CLASS OFFICERS

"To be or not to be;" "Double, double toil and trouble," sang the Class of '66 as they bravely prepared to tackle HAMLET and MACBETH. English literature, longer term papers, cut cards, and beanies greeted seniors as they returned to Falls Church High after a long vacation.

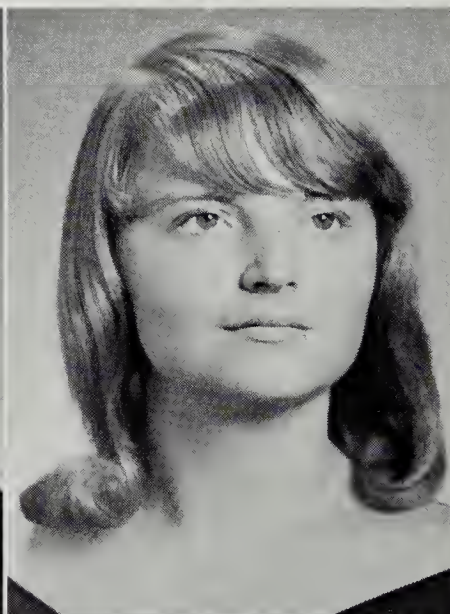

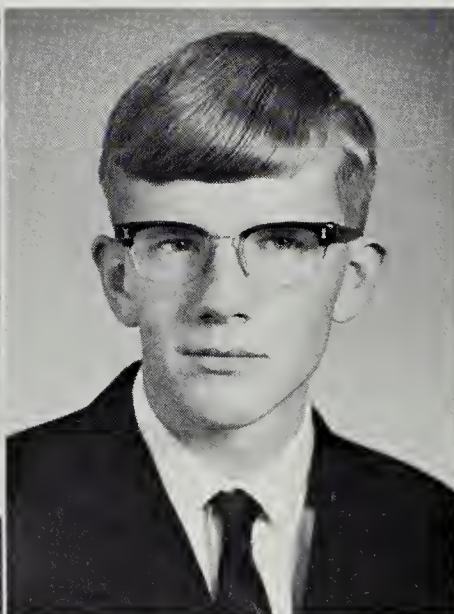

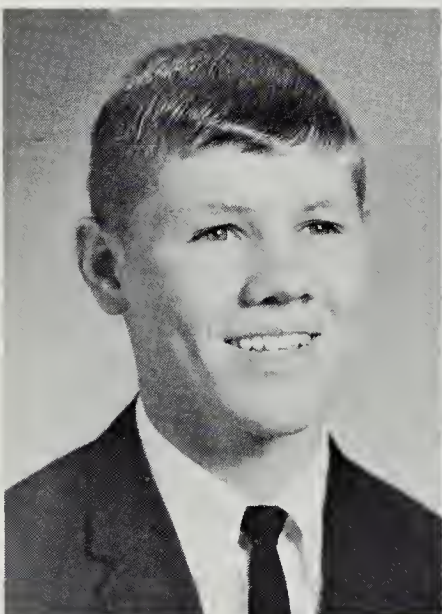

Working throughout the summer, the officers had an energetic program planned when school opened in September. Interest in class activities motivated seventy-three seniors to join the Class Council.

Not all of their spare time was spent in the courtyard; seniors planned the Homecoming Weekend around the theme of "Raku—the Festival of the Quarter Moon," a previously non-existent Chinese holiday. This was the year for purple two-headed dragons as the Sixty-sixers won the float competition for the second year in a row.

Sadie Hawkins came and went, leaving the treasury $770 richer. With their hilarious antics, the characters, elected by the student body, made the dance a huge success.

As college and job acceptances filled mailboxes, and the Prom and Graduation loomed nearer, seniors soon realized that twelve years of schooling were soon to come to an end, yet these were only a prologue to a lifetime of responsibilities to themselves and to their world.

"Seniors, Please Rise!"

That was the phrase seniors liked to hear! After three long years the class of '66 finally gained the status to reap the privileges that come in the last year at F.C.H.S. Privileges were expanded this year to include a specific section of the lunchroom for use by seniors only, and a senior lunchline.

As always the "excused absence card" was the joy of the outgoing class; it entitled each senior to escape studies twelve times. The cut card, a most prized possession, can be used when a senior maintains a "B" average.

During the balmy months of the school year, the senior courtyard provided a place for between-class relaxation. Begun three years ago, the number of seniors claiming permanent lunch period residence in the courtyard has more than tripled.

Each schoolwide assembly is terminated by the well known cry, "Seniors, please rise." As seniors exit, the seated underclassmen watch and wait for their year of privileges.

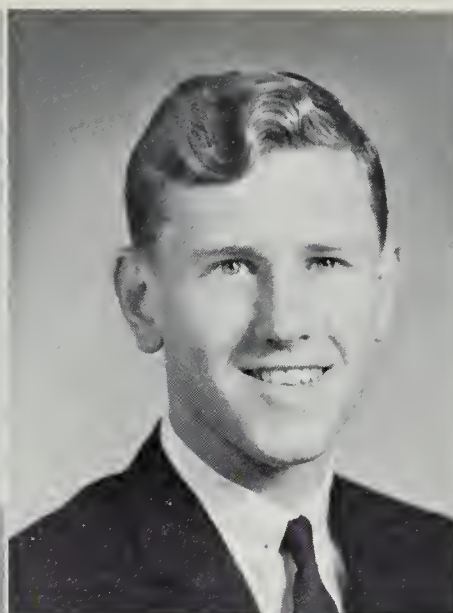

Under the spreading maple tree sit seniors, graduates soon to be.

Courtyard Remains Status Symbol

Three cheers for upperclassmanship! The superiority the juniors felt when selecting class rings and competing against seniors in "friendly" rivalries, will long be remembered.

Almost from the beginning, the Class of '67 served notice that this was to be a memorable year. Bake sales, the dues drive, the Powder Puff game, and the Christmas Dance gathered more than $800 for the treasury.

The Junior Class stunned F.C.H.S. by breaking a long established tradition and beating the seniors in the Powder Puff game. The "lovely" cheerleaders spirited their team to a 20-13 victory.

The Christmas Dance, traditionally sponsored by the Junior Class, preceded a long awaited vacation, and the new year brought thoughts of the Prom. Held at the Marriot Hotel, the theme of "Sayonara Seniors" accented the oriental-inspired decorations.

But eleventh grade wasn't all merri-ment; there were Step and Scat, P.S.A.T., and College Boards. With these criteria came the realization that their last year of schooling was not far off.

CLASS OFFICERS

SOPHOMORE! How the Class of '68 rallied around this nine-letter title! No longer the "baby" class, sophomores were able to devote time and energy—and a little fun—to money-raising projects in anticipation of next year's Prom.

Bake sales, held both during the summer and the school year, helped to enrich the class treasury. One of the most successful sales accompanied the memorable Stuart game of December 11. Earlier, the sophomores captured top honors in the bonfire contest, and soon thereafter sponsored an assembly to kick off a successful dues drive. In December the sophomores topped all other classes to win the annual Food and Toy Drive.

Not all of the year was work, however. On November 6 the Organic Cavemen were presented at the class-sponsored dance. In March a car wash brightened the month's calendar. The sophomore picnic on June 4 brought to a close a year of activity for the sixty-eighters.

SOPHOMORE! How the Class of '68 rallied around this nine-letter title! No longer the "baby" class, sophomores were able to devote time and energy—and a little fun—to money-raising projects in anticipation of next year's Prom.

Bake sales, held both during the summer and the school year, helped to enrich the class treasury. One of the most successful sales accompanied the memorable Stuart game of December 11. Earlier, the sophomores captured top honors in the bonfire contest, and soon thereafter sponsored an assembly to kick off a successful dues drive. In December the sophomores topped all other classes to win the annual Food and Toy Drive.

Not all of the year was work, however. On November 6 the Organic Cavemen were presented at the class-sponsored dance. In March a car wash brightened the month's calendar. The sophomore picnic on June 4 brought to a close a year of activity for the sixty-eighters.

Confusion reigned as the freshmen entered the world of green lockers and varsity football games. Not quite understanding the complexities of high school life, the 69'ers profited from experience gained in their first year here. Soon becoming an active part of the student body, the ninth grade was the only class to reach its goal in the magazine drive. By winning this contest they added $50 to their treasury. The first dues drive in November netted $165, with fifty per cent of the freshmen paying. Bake sales and a dance in the spring rounded out a busy year for the baby Jags.

Student Government Expands Programs

August 31, 1965

The year opened with "Good morning, students. This is Phil Bobel with your morning announcements. Harkey Mayo, Vice-President, has an announcement to make."

"The Green Book, published this summer by the officers and interested members, should be given out in homerooms. The freshmen have already received these books at Freshman Orientation."

"Steve Matthews, Election Committee chairman."

"Homeroom senators will be elected soon by a new self-nomination system. Freshman Class elections will follow and SCA officers will be elected in March."

"The Magazine Drive starts on September 8 and I predict we will make a profit of $3,400, so everyone sell!" announces John Allen.

"And now, Carolyn Mangeng, chairman of the Evaluation Conference."

"This year Falls Church is going to have its first leadership conference on December 2. All area schools in our district are being invited."

"Jill Tavenner, chairman of the Food and Toy Drive."

"In December we are having our annual Food and Toy Drive. We plan to gather 10,000 food items for area needy families."

"The Sweetheart Dance will be in February with Patty Melick as chairman. Also, we will have a Pride Week to discuss our Student Code, directed by Kathy Fioramonti and Kathy Bowman. The March of Dimes Drive, at the end of the month, should bring us about $65 in donations from the student body."

"In March we will have a Student Exchange Program with Jeb Stuart and George Mason. And now, Larry Johnson, chairman of the Partners of the Alliance Committee."

"In April we are going to have a 'M.A.R.U. in Peru' Drive to raise money to buy a Mobile Anti Rabies Unit."

"The SCA carnival will be in May with the incoming president as chairman. Those are our morning announcements for today. Thank you for your attention."

SCA Works With Clubs Through ICC

Throughout the year the Inter-Club Council increased the number of active members from last year's average attendance of six to this year's average of thirty at the ICC meetings. Four new clubs were chartered by the Council: the Joy Boys, the Fish and Wildlife Club, the Torch and Banner Club, and the Math Honor Society.

The Council organized club displays for Freshman Orientation and club booths at the Spring Carnival. Beginning in January the Club of the Month Award became a function of the ICC. The real purpose of the Council was displayed by organizing the clubs for the Pride Assembly, the Student Participation Assembly, the club reports for the Welcome Packet, and the Christmas decoration contest. To help unite the clubs and in order to avoid conflicting schedules, a Calendar Committee was formed to schedule activities. Bulletin boards, weekly bulletins, and the daily Bull-roar kept the student body informed of club activities.

As the year drew to a close, activities included the All-Club Membership Drive and providing an All-Club bulletin board.

ICC chairman, Harkey Mayo, addresses a meeting.

National Honor Society

Tim Arnold lights induction candle at honor society assembly.

The purpose of the National Honor Society, the Elizabeth Ann Clem chapter, established in 1946, is clear and concise as stated in the constitution: "to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote worthy leadership, and to encourage the development of character in all students."

The National Honor Society carried out this purpose in a wide variety of activities this past year. Enthusiasm for scholarship was promoted by tutoring students who requested assistance, recognizing honor roll students, holding formal inductions in the fall and spring, and by awarding a worthy member of the honor society a $100 scholarship at the end of the year. Service was achieved primarily through means of an Easter Seal Drive. The "Thought of the Week" and the Friday flag salute promoted character. Leadership was advanced by speaking to freshmen before their elections.

Mr. Reitz, acting sponsor during Mrs. Chapman's absence from school, directed the activities of the society.

Junior National Honor Society Inducts 46

The Junior National Honor Society, following the standards of the National Honor Society, is made up of students who display qualities of scholarship, leadership, service, character, and citizenship.

Membership in the society is obtained by application. To be accepted as a member one must be a ninth or tenth grader with a "B" average and no grade below a "C."

This year the Junior National Honor Society had two inductions—one in the fall and one in the spring. They were held in the evening in the library, with parents and inductees invited. The inductions included speeches centered around the five honor society candles of scholarship, leadership, service, character, and citizenship. A reception for the new members followed the ceremony.

A free tutoring service was set up for those students in need of help in school subjects. In addition, a field trip was taken by the group to see the movie "Doctor Zhivago." Several bake sales were held to raise money. All activities and inductions were supervised by Mrs. Lemon, Sponsor.

Strange sounds could be heard pouring from room 218 during 4B lunch study hall. Sighs, shrieks, giggles, and laughs all meant that the PAW PRINT staff was reading its latest contributions. Talented writers submitted romantic, tragic, humorous, mysterious, and indescribable works to Literary Co-Editors Michele Cayot and Jane Cappio. The staff members supervised by Editor Ann Garvin, and visited regularly by Miss May, Advisor, then carefully reviewed the manuscripts, using a five-point grading system. The selected works were typed by Production Editor Janet Hess. Art Editor Peggy Pillar supplied artistic inspiration. This year experiments with color and shading provided interesting artistic effects.

This newly established staff period has done much to improve the magazine's organization. However, at least one late night session was necessary to compile the final copy.

Underclassified, a baby PAW PRINT, was the creation of this year's staff. Its purpose was to recognize creativity among the freshmen and sophomores.

Yearbook Staff Produces 21st Edition

Pat Dietrich, Editor-in-Chief, and Miss Maupin, Advisor, plan yearbook format.

Deadlines, galley sheets, and copy blocks were a few of the additions to the vocabulary of twenty-one yearbook staff members. Work on the '66 JAGUAR began in May, 1965, when the first meeting was held. Wanting to present the school with an even greater yearbook, as well as introducing new ideas, some members of the staff attended summer workshops. Editor-in-Chief Pat Dietrich, and Phil Gieseler went to Catholic University, while Dan Abrams and John Judd attended a similar workshop at American University. Here they were presented with much valuable information on yearbook techniques which was applied to the '66 JAGUAR. Seen tramping the street of Falls Church, Annandale, and Fairfax, the energetic advertisement staff sought patrons to help finance the yearbook.

It was a busy year as the harried editors fought to meet deadlines, but amid the sweat, toil, and tears were laughs and many wonderful memories.

on Student Opinion

Whether interviewing our foreign exchange students, deciding on "Upper Crust," or covering the latest baseball game, the "Jaguar Journal" staff was busy all year round. A fresh look at school life and school news was the goal of the 1965-66 staff. In addition, the newspaper placed emphasis on editorials and opinions of students and faculty. Monthly editorials expressed views on everything from Viet Nam to cheating in our classrooms.

The first page strived to present news developments of the school. The second page encouraged the student body to question an individual opinion. Unusual and interesting features were found on the third page, and the latest in sports were reviewed on the fourth page.

Membership in the National Scholastic Press Association, the Southern Interscholastic Press Association, and the Columbia Scholastic Press Association has netted the "Jaguar Journal" many awards.

Through Service

Friendship and service—the meaning of Keyettes—was the goal of the Falls Church Keyette Club during this, their most active year ever.

The Keyettes began the school year by serving as guides at Freshman Orientation, sponsoring Teachers' Appreciation Week, and selling hot dogs at home football games. During the year, the Keyettes helped to improve the school by cleaning the library and participating in the Pride Assembly.

Christmas stockings for the Salvation Army, a Thanksgiving basket for a needy family and cartoon books for Fairfax Hospital were some of the Keyettes' contributions to the community. Money was sent to their Japanese orphan and to the Peace Corps with the help of fund raising activities.

By sponsoring an area- and school-wide drive the Keyettes presented over 3,400 books to an underprivileged elementary school in Mineral, Virginia.

Civitans Serve School and Community

"Hurry up you guys! It's almost half time!"

Whether buying flowers for the Senior cheerleaders or building a doll house for Junior Village, the Junior Civitan Club fulfilled its purpose "to build citizenship through school and community projects."

Boys chosen for their leadership, citizenship, and good character served their school by presenting the football team with a victory wreath, donating several trophies to the athletic department, cleaning up after bonfires, and painting the newly built athletic shed. School sponsored activities included taking part in the Food and Toy Drive, and helping in a book drive to stock a library in Mineral, Virginia. Sponsored solely by the Civitans was a School Appearance Week, building an application container for the main office, sponsoring their annual King Ugly Contest for the benefit of the March of Dimes, and a Swim Fest. The club's main projects were adopting an orphan in Hong Kong through the Christian Children's Relief Fund, and holding, in conjunction with the Fairfax County Police Department, a Safe Driving Week.

Introduced at F.C.H.S.

"The boys have two service clubs, why can't we?" No longer content with talking about it, a group of interested girls decided to take action this year.

Organized last summer, the Torch & Banner Club is patterned after a Torch & Banner Club located at John Marshall High School in Richmond, Virginia. The purpose of the club is to serve the school and community in any way possible.

Sponsored by Miss Betty Jo Wiley, "TAB" had a very successful first year. The club placed second in the annual Food and Toy Drive, showing a willingness to work. Other projects adopted were working at the Northern Virginia Cerebral Palsy Center and sending money to a foreign child for medicine to help cure him of leprosy. Various fund raising activities included numerous bake sales, a weekend spent raking leaves, and an Errand Week. During Errand Week the girls did all types of chores, and all money earned went to the club.

The Torch & Banner Club also elected their first annual Sweetheart; a senior boy, Fred Rock, was selected for honorary membership in the club. He joined in the various activities and helped with publicity.

The club also sponsored an exchange program with the other presently existing Torch & Banner Club to bring the two closer together.

"We build." This is the motto of Key Club International, an organization dedicated to building leadership and scholarship in young men throughout the country. Key Club members are chosen because they show a willingness to work, along with the qualities of leadership and scholarship.

The Key Club of Falls Church High School has done its part in furthering these aims. Cleaning the school crest, cleaning the football field after games, and operating the Valentine and Christmas mail service were some of the service projects the club provided this year.

The Key Club is especially proud of its work for the March of Dimes, Cerebral Palsy, and UNICEF. They co-sponsored Maid and Butler Day for the benefit of the Cerebral Palsy Center and decorated the Center for a Valentine's Day party. Key Club members sponsored the Junior-Senior Basketball Game with proceeds going to the March of Dimes.

AFS Furthers World Understanding

Foreign exchange students Hans Smit from the Netherlands and Tony Ferrar from the Philippines.

"The furthering of understanding and good will in the world" is the purpose of the American Field Service Club. By bringing teenagers to the United States to live and study with an American family, and sending American students abroad for the summer, the AFS seeks fulfillment of its goal.

In its eighth year at Falls Church, the AFS Club is the largest club in the school. Selling school calendars, Falls Church High School jewelry, Christmas cards, and donuts, holding an AFS assembly at which contributions were taken, and checking coats at the Homecoming and Sweetheart Dances netted the club the necessary $1,000 needed to bring a foreign student here. Hans Smit from the Netherlands was sponsored by our club for 1965-66. These activities also supplied the money needed to send a FCHS student abroad during the summer. This past year Linda Hallstead spent two months in Germany.

As Pep Club Works, Spirit Soars

Pep Club president, Mary Jane Slimak, presents Coach Sell and the football team with a victory wreath.

"Programs, 15¢ each, programs!" Many a football fan has heard a Pep Clubber's vociferous cry. An active Pep Club this year included among its activities the selling of football programs, ribbons and pom-poms. Cheering contests with the Joy Boys raised the volume at many sports events. Since promoting good school spirit was the main purpose of the club, throughout the year it made posters advertising games, provided buses for the away games so that transportation was available to everyone, and decorated the team buses with signs and streamers to boost the players' morale.

Their annual $500 donation to the Athletic Department was well received, as always, and put to good use. An always active and energetic club, the '66 JAGUAR salutes the Pep Club for building school spirit, loyalty, and pride among the students of Falls Church High School.

Joy Boys Organized to Boost Spirit

Joy Boys boost spirit and volume at football games.

"Pursue them, pursue them. Make them relinquish the ball!" On hearing this boisterous cry at games, one can easily trace its source. It is the sound of the Joy Boys, a new club chartered this year that lent fresh spirit to all sports.

The Joy Boys actually began four years ago when some members of the Class of '66 used to meet at the basketball games and sing lively spirited songs. Since then it has developed into a great spirit-building group by uniting in a loud cheering section, wearing unusual clothes, and originating loud and unique cheers.

With their theme song, "We Are the Joy Boys of Falls Church High," they had members at all games, and started a cheering competition with the Pep Club. In addition, the Joy Boys have carried on several money-making projects, among them, selling donuts door-to-door. With money earned the club participated in various service projects.

for Debaters

Falls Church High School has always been noted for its excellent debate teams. In the past ten years, we have had a state championship team, a district championship team, and at no time have we been less than third place in the final standings of the Northern Virginia Debate Tournament of all the high schools.

Falls Church has also won numerous trophies, among which was a first place in the State Tournament, a first place in the University of Richmond Tournament, and at other times, a first and second place in the George Washington University Tournament. The many trophies in the trophy case attest to these facts.

This year the Falls Church Debate Team debated the resolution relative to labor management disputes in the basic industries. Our Varsity Debate Team, formed of experienced debaters, had the usual successful season.

Art Club Sponsors Annual Variety Show

Art workshops improved skills in ceramics.

A busy Art Club sponsored activities from September to June. Workshops held throughout the year emphasized the use of ceramics and glass. Field trips to area art galleries and participation in local art contests were also part of the activities.

In February, the Art Club presented the annual Variety Show. Participation in the show was open to all students. This year, Robbie Price emceed the show that featured bands, singers and dancers. The club raised over $300 which went to the Art Department. The money was used for art supplies and for a scholarship which was awarded to a deserving senior art student.

The Art Show, which included oil paintings, and black and white drawings, as well as pastels, was held in the spring. Each student in the school was given an opportunity to vote for the best work of art in the show. Also, local art judges selected the work they considered best. A scholarship of $100 was awarded to the "best one man show."

Choral Department

The members of the Falls Church Choral Department have sung their way through an active school year. Lilted cantillations of everything from "Allen-a-dale" to "Mary Poppins" could be heard emanating from room 031, as Girls' Chorus, Mixed Chorus, Concert Choir, or the Madrigals warmed up.

Under the direction of Mrs. Wilma Hamilton, a new member of our faculty, the choral music program began its season with the annual Winter Concert. The repertoire consisted of music from various countries. "The Song of Christmas," depicting the Christmas story was also presented by combining the entire choral department.

The most active choral group in the school during the festive Christmas season was, as always, the Madrigals. Appearances before church and social groups and at the Senate Office Building were among some of their activities. Visits to Whittier Intermediate School and Pine Spring Elementary School were also in the program of events for the Madrigals.

An experience that will always be remembered by the school was the musical production, "Oklahoma." Combining the musicianship of our band, and the thespian qualities of our Drama Department, the musical was a tremendous success.

As the end of the year quickly approached, the entire Choral Department was again combined for the Spring Concert. Bringing a more climactic conclusion to the seniors' high school career, the Madrigals sang at Constitution Hall making all those present aware of the tremendous musical talent represented in Falls Church High School.

Not for several years has there been a group of selected singers from the entire county together. In January 1966, approximately 300 students representing all the high schools in the county met at Woodson High School and presented a concert open to the public.

Representing Falls Church were Mike Blum, Angie Ciffo, Cindy Cohen, Pat Dietrich, Diane Ferrone, Harriet Hoffman, John Judd, Alicia LaCoss, Steve Price, and Mary Jane Slimak. They sang under the superior direction of Dr. Robert Fountain, Dean of Music at Oberlin University. After vigorous rehearsals Friday afternoon and night, as well as all day Saturday, a memorable concert was given Sunday afternoon. All participating gained insight and invaluable experience in the field of choral music.

Bob Bowman, Drum Major, and Mr. Lunsford, Band Director.

This year the Falls Church High School Band was rated the number one band east of the Mississippi River. In June 1965 the band took top honors at the fourth annual Virginia Beach Music Festival. The Jaguars recorded stunning ratings of "I" in Concert, Sight Reading, and Marching. This rating was the highest given, and Falls Church was the only band to receive the rating of "I" in all three categories. The band will return this year to the festival by invitation as "Honor Band." Also at the festival Bob Bowman was named Outstanding Drum Major.

To keep in step for our grid games, the band played at a Washington Redskin game and a George Washington University football game at D. C. Stadium. The band's biggest thrill was the honor of playing at the Houston Oilers and New York Jets football game at the George Washington High School. This game was televised locally and nationally over ABC.

On Saturday, March 12, the concert band received a "Superior" in grade 6 music which was the highest possible rating in the most difficult category of music at the area music festival.

Queen Clara Huff and her escort, Bill Wheeler, lead the court dance.

To the beautiful music of the Falls Church High School Band, the 1965 Homecoming Court was presented on the evening of October 15 during the half-time of the Annandale football game. The seniors' prize winning float, The Purple Two-Headed Dragon, looked down over the whole affair as Mr. Todd presented our red-haired queen, Miss Clara Huff, with the gold football.

The following night the music of the Apollos set the mood for the semi-formal Homecoming dance. Our 1964 Homecoming Queen, Miss Karen Ashwell, returned to crown Clara.

The weekend's festivities proved to be memorable ones for everyone who attended.

Sadie Hawkins Dance

Dogpatch in Virginia? On November 24, the Falls Church High School Cafeteria became "small-town U.S.A." as Dogpatch characters with their hilarious antics invaded the cafeteria.

Couples were lined up to be married to the romantic music of the "Electras" and "Marryin' Sam", alias Steve Small, performed the solemn ceremonies. Others included were "Lil' Abner", Dick Monday; "Daisy Mae", Beckie Wallace; "Mammy Yokum", Dottie Mountjoy; "Pappy Yokum", Mike Head; "Tiny Yokum", John Yonushonis; "Cave Gal", Patty Benedict; "Wolf Gal", Lynn Batts; "Moonbeam McSwine", Carolyn Schutz; and "Honest Abe", Mike Porvaznik.

The traditional dance was praised by all as a huge success, but especially by Jennifer Huseby, Senior Class treasurer. "The $700 we earned was a welcome addition to our treasury," she commented.

One question still remains today about this particular dance: "Is it true that Bill Bell and Milt Fall were betrothed?"

Junior-Senior Basketball Game

The annual Junior-Senior Basketball game, sponsored by the Key Club, and the King Ugly Contest, sponsored by the Jr. Civitan Club provided fun for all who attended. The Seniors, coached by Jack VonRunnen, met the Juniors, coached by Bill Oliver, in a riotous game from which the Seniors emerged victorious by a score of 25-14.

During halftime, President of the Jr. Civitan Club, Dick Monday, presented Steve Small with the title of "King Ugly of 1966."

The whole affair raised money for the benefit of the March of Dimes.

Amid clusters of red-white hearts, Patty Benedict reigned over the 1966 Sweetheart Dance. Wearing the traditional white gown with red accessories, Patty was crowned by 1965 Sweetheart Queen, Linda Huff.

The Princetons provided the music; the SCA provided the decorations; and the Sweetheart Dance provided a good time for all.

"PILLOW TALK"

On November 19 the curtain went up on what turned out to be the most successful production put on by the Drama Department to date. The play, "Pillow Talk," an adaptation of the hit movie, with a cast of twenty-one student actors under the direction of Mrs. Francine Ogilvie, played to a full house both nights. Stand out performances were given by veterans Meddy Martin, Merle Greenberg, Ken Graham, and Jim Parr, with newcomer Alan Mullins nearly stealing the show. In all, it turned out to be an extremely enjoyable and entertaining show.

Ken Graham as "Brad Allen" captures Meddy Martin as "Jan Morrow" in a final scene from the play.

"ASK ANY GIRL"

The Drama Department's second annual production this year was "Ask Any Girl," directed by Mrs. Francine Ogilvie, and starring Anita Kleinfeld, Ron Miner, Alan, Mullins, Merle Greenberg, and Dick Traynham. Of the seventeen cast members, eleven were veterans of previous Drama Department productions. Among the new aspiring actresses presented in this play were Nancy Albertson, Jean Lloyd, Linda Fling, and Linda Hallstead.

Meddy Martin, Ronnie Miner, and Sue Hallstead rehearse as "Lisa," "Evan," and "Ruby."

Marie McCann, Nancy Albertson, and Doris Heath relax between the scenes.

"OKLAHOMA" COMES

"O What a Beautiful Morning" topped off two lovely evenings of singing, acting, and dancing as the Falls Church High School Choral Department presented the Broadway musical "Oklahoma."

The musical characterized the feud between the ranchers and the cattlemen during the settlement of the State of Oklahoma. The main cattlemen, "Curley" and "Will Parker" battled through songs and dancing against the farmers, "Old Man Carnes" and "Jud". However, amidst the quarrelling the farmers and cattlemen found time for social gatherings as well as romance. The song "People Will Say We're in Love" was sung by the major romantic characters, "Curley" and "Laurie." Everything turned out fine in the end as "Will" married "Ado Annie," and "Ali Hakim" married "Gertie."

Many other talented singers made up the chorus of farmers and cattlemen in this successful musical which played to full houses both nights and made over $1,000 for the Choral Department.

"The Case of the Missing Petunias"

The one-act play presented by the Drama Department, under the direction of Mrs. Francine Ogilvie, was presented to the student body at an assembly during February. Merle Greenberg, Ronnie Miner, Don Papke, and Gini Gustafson were the principal and only actors. Taken to the district competition, it received a "superior rating." For the first time in more than 15 years of FCHS history, Falls Church was represented in the State One-Act Play Competition.

Maid and Butler Day

Green football socks, Civitan sweat-shirts, and colorful hats were the mode for harried Key Clubbers and Keyettes on March 1.

Annually, these club members sell themselves into service to raise money for the March of Dimes. The maids and butlers were required to do their masters' bidding for the day. Such mundane tasks as book carrying and tray toting were supplemented with singing, skipping, and reading poetry in the cafeteria. This good natured fun made for a memorable day and raised $60 for a worthy cause.

Keyettes Pam Moodie and Gail Lebbon faithfully serve their "masters" for the day, Jim Owens and John Stevenson.

The 1966 Prom was a long-awaited event for juniors and seniors alike. For the juniors it was the finale of many months of hard work and planning, and for the seniors, a very memorable part of graduation.

The magic of the Marriott Hotel ballroom was heightened with the appearance and crowning of our lovely queen, Miss Janet Nolan, and the presentation of her court.

Coach George Mandes, Captain and All-Northern Virginia halfback Gary Young, Head Coach Chuck Sell.

FALLS CHURCH 14, GROVETON 13 — Quarterback Bill Bell sets up one of the two touchdown passes that brought the Jaguars from behind in the second quarter. Bell's aerals to Mike Mitchell and Gary Young along with his two conversions, provided the margin of victory.

McLEAN 14, FALLS CHURCH 9 — Halfback Jim Farrell takes a handoff from Bill Bell before gaining nine yards during a fourth quarter rally. The drive fell short as Bell's field goal and Gary Young's touchdown were the only scores against the streaking Highlanders.

WOODSON 44, FALLS CHURCH 28 — Quarterback Bill Bell speeds down the sideline in the season's highest scoring game. Bell had picked up a bad snap from center and scrambled 19 yards to set up a Jaguar touchdown. However, the Cavaliers took an early 21-0 lead and went on to win.

FALLS CHURCH 7, JEFFERSON 6 — One of the season's most dramatic moments occurred when Bill Bell kicked the extra point to give the Jags their second Northern District victory of the season. Dick Monday tied the game by running 20 yards with a screen pass before Bell won it with only two minutes remaining. Gary Young (20) placed the ball.

YORKTOWN 26, FALLS CHURCH 12 — The season closed on a sad note when the Potomac District's third-place Patriots pulled away on a third quarter rally. Milt Fall (front) and the rest of the Jaguar line protects Bell on a handoff to Jim Farrell, while Rip Ellis (83) sets up to block the onrushing end.

FALLS CHURCH 17, MADISON 14 — Gary Young (20) takes a handoff from Bill Bell on a 99 yard march that clinched the first victory of the year. Young carried on eight of the ten plays it took to score after the line held off the Warhawks bid for a touchdown. Bell's early field goal was the margin of victory.

ANNANDALE 34, FALLS CHURCH 0 — The Jags were one of Annandale's eleven stepping stones to the state championship as the Atoms romped at Homecoming. At right, halfback Dick Monday is chased by three big Annandale linemen. The Atoms' aggressiveness and quick scoring power decided the game early.

FAIRFAX 20, FALLS CHURCH 7 — This game found the Jaguar-of-the-Year on the move running (above) and passing. Bell accounted for much of the 260 yards rolled up against the rough Rebel defense.

MARSHALL 19, FALLS CHURCH 0 — Dan Abrams takes a screen pass from quarterback Bill Bell in the third quarter of a loss to Marshall. Neither team was very effective in this contest in which Bell threw 30 passes.

STUART 13, FALLS CHURCH 9 — The first game of the year was the best—except for the result. The running of Dick Monday (at right), Gary Young, and Bill Bell was superb while the line never hit harder than it did that night. Bell tallied a touchdown and a field goal to give the Jags a 9-6 edge until Stuart's Bill Campbell (30) recovered a fumble late in the game and a touchdown pass with 10 seconds left, gave the Raiders a victory.

All-Northern District Center Bob Bowman (40) drives past Art Holdt (41) in the 62-40 victory over Stuart. The bustling co-captain led the squad in rebounding and was a "stopper" on defense. Big Bob's top game was at Annandale when he scored 27 points.

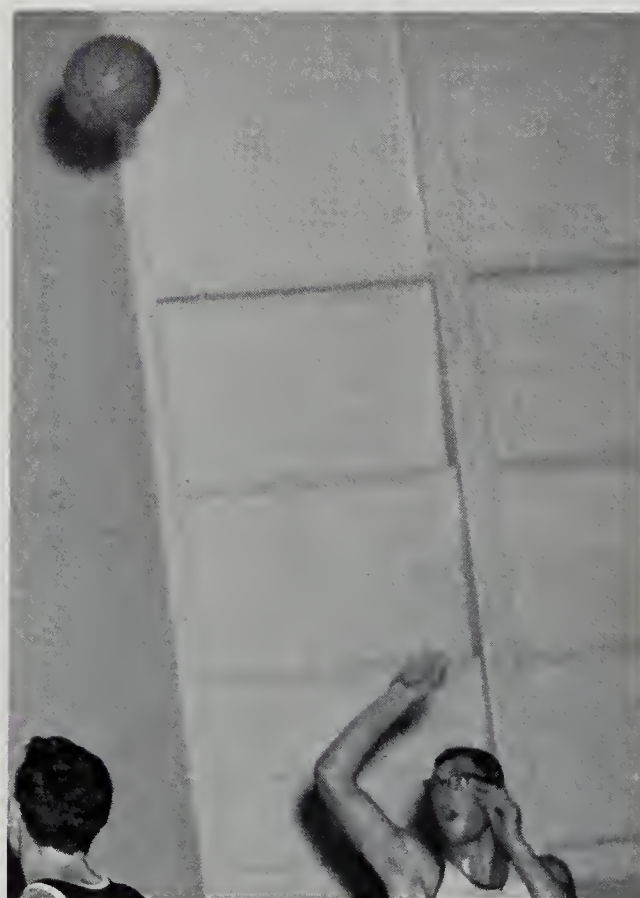

All Northern Virginia, All Northern District, All-Tournament were honors that came to Steve Poucher (50), seen here rebounding over Woodson's Skip Brandon (35). Poucher averaged 17.4 points including games of 34 and 29 and averaged 83 per cent from the foul line.

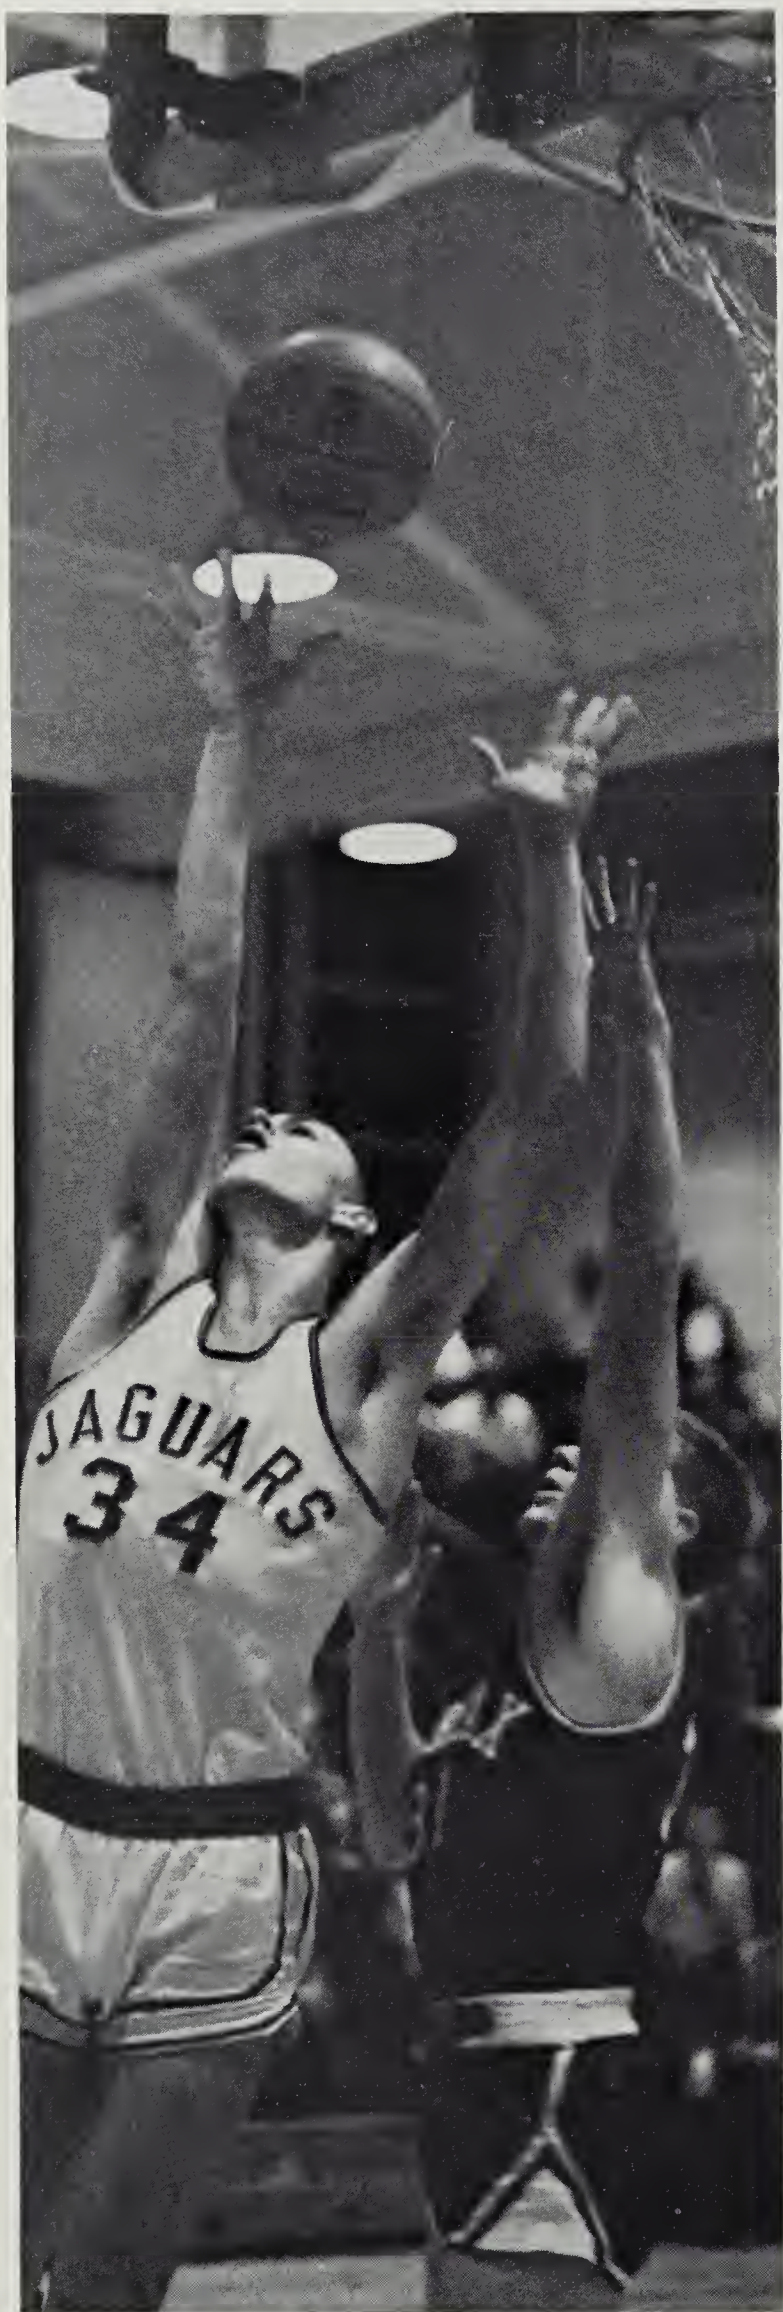

Junior Bill Oliver (24) sparked the Jags to victory over Stuart in the second game and continued to improve. He sank McLean with a last-second jumper and here he drives for two of his 19 points against Woodson. Oliver's high game was for 30 points against Madison.

Gary Young puts up two points against Annandale in an 83-68 victory. In this game the 5'7" guard hit double figures, but Young's biggest asset was his stellar defensive play. His top game was against Fairfax for 13 points.

Dennis Crawford (52) hits for two against Stuart. This 6'2" junior gave the Jags depth in height and rebounding. His top game was against Madison where he replaced Bob Bowman in a 72-57 victory.

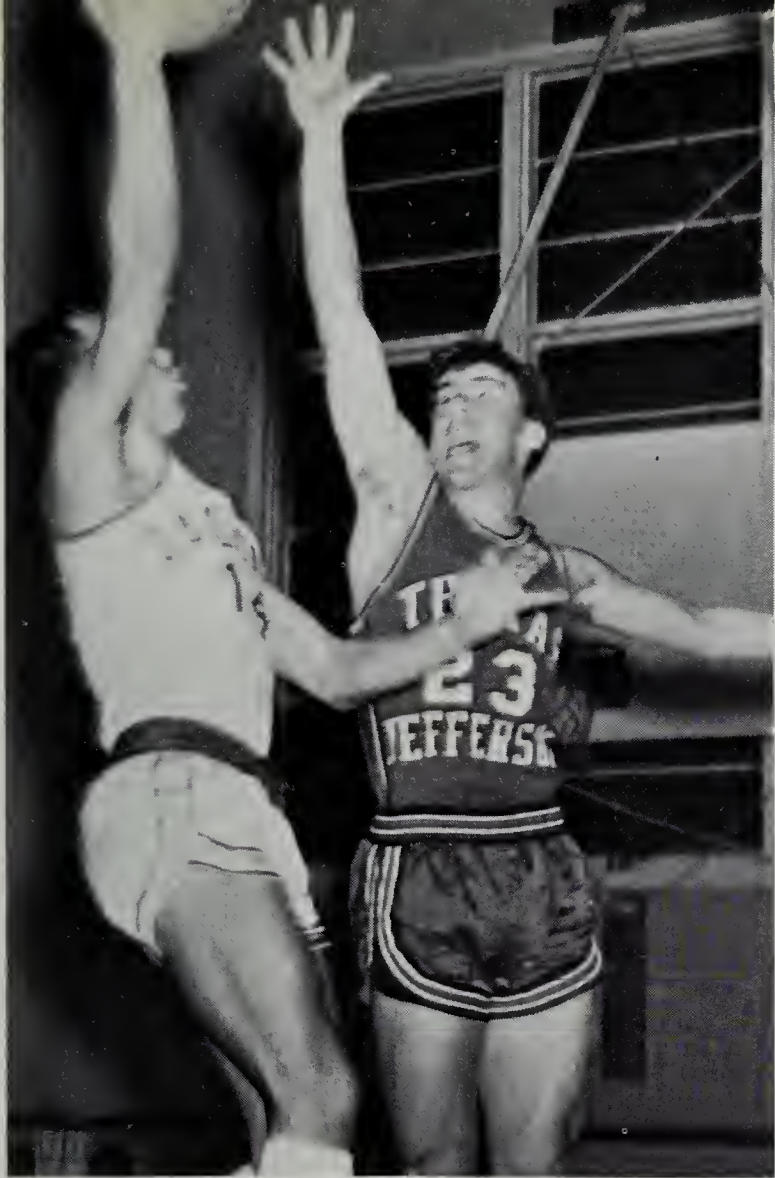

Bruce Wright (34) represented the biggest improvement among all the Jaguars. "Goose" averaged 12 points a game with his top performances coming against Jefferson with 19 points. Above, Wright eludes Fairfax's Steve Alvis (31) for a basket.

Larry Brooks (20) shoots from the corner against Fort Hunt. Brooks had the honor of breaking the team scoring record against O'Connell, and his ball stealing and shooting led to the first victory over Jefferson.

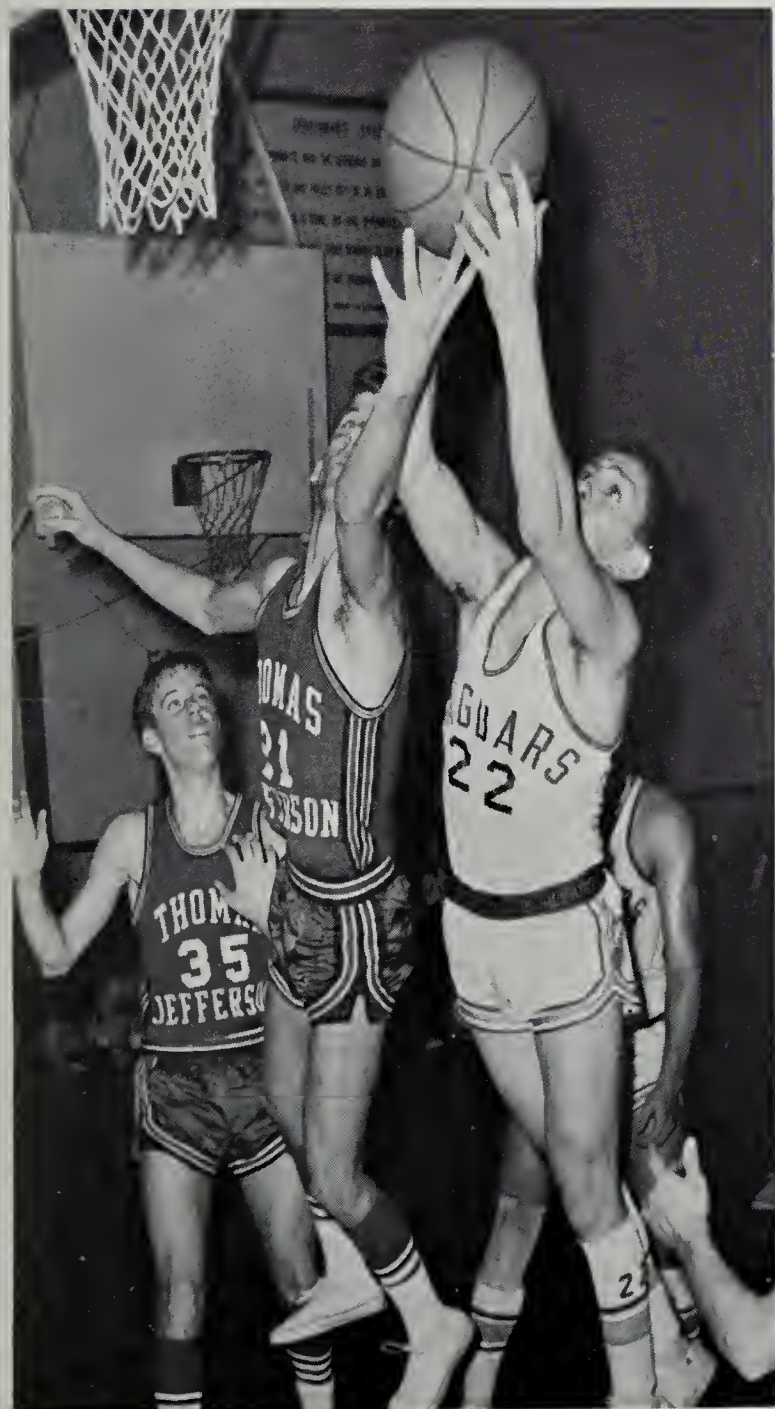

Bill Wells (32) gets off a jumper in the victory over Groveton. Wells had a hot hand against Langley with nine points as the second team played their top game.

Jack VonRunnen (14) shoots against Jefferson's Jim Andrews (23) in the second win over the Colonials. In the first Jefferson game Jack broke a 63-63 tie in the last second with a swish shot.

Bruce Boger (13) drives in for two against O'Connell. Boger's hook shots added something special to the already colorful second team play.

Steve Small (22) fights a Jefferson player for a rebound. "Skeeter" did not see much game action but his hustling play in practice helped the team effort immensely.

Dan Abrams (30) flips in a shot in the 88-64 win over Madison. "Hub-Abe" had his top performance against Langley with nine points. Coach McCool said that the hustle of Abrams and Small were factors in the squad's success.

Before the beginning of its season, the junior-dominated Falls Church wrestling team was not supposed to be one of the area's best. But this "cinderella" team under its new coach Bob Pruett charged to a 10-1 dual meet record (the best ever).

Captain Dennis Godfrey took third in District and State competition while junior Gary Trudell placed second in the District and another junior, Tony Christ, placed third in the District.

Godfrey led the dual season with a 10-0-1 record while Trudell was 9-1-1 and Christ finished 7-1-1.

Dennis Godfrey rides out W-L's David Long for a 10-6 victory in his final dual match. Godfrey was never beaten in three years of dual competition. Godfrey took third in the District at 145. He also placed third in the State by beating the top wrestlers in Northern Virginia.

Matmen Finish 10-1 In Best Dual Meet Season

Tony Christ drives Annandale's Bill Day in the Northern Virginia Regionals. This junior fulfilled his potential at 165 by finishing 7-1-1 after a knee injury threatened his season. Tony took third in the Regionals to make the state tourney, but he lost there to the Eastern District Champion.

An unexpected addition to the Jaguar wrestling team was junior Gary Trudell, a transfer from Long Island. Trudell was 9-1-1, led the team in takedowns, and made the finals of the Regionals at 120. Here Trudell (top) wins his preliminary tourney bout, 14-2.

At 127, junior John Moore was a hard luck wrestler with three of his four defeats coming by one point. John was 6-4-1 and missed making the state tourney by a 1-0 decision. Moore (top) sits out against Annandale's Paul Ketcham.

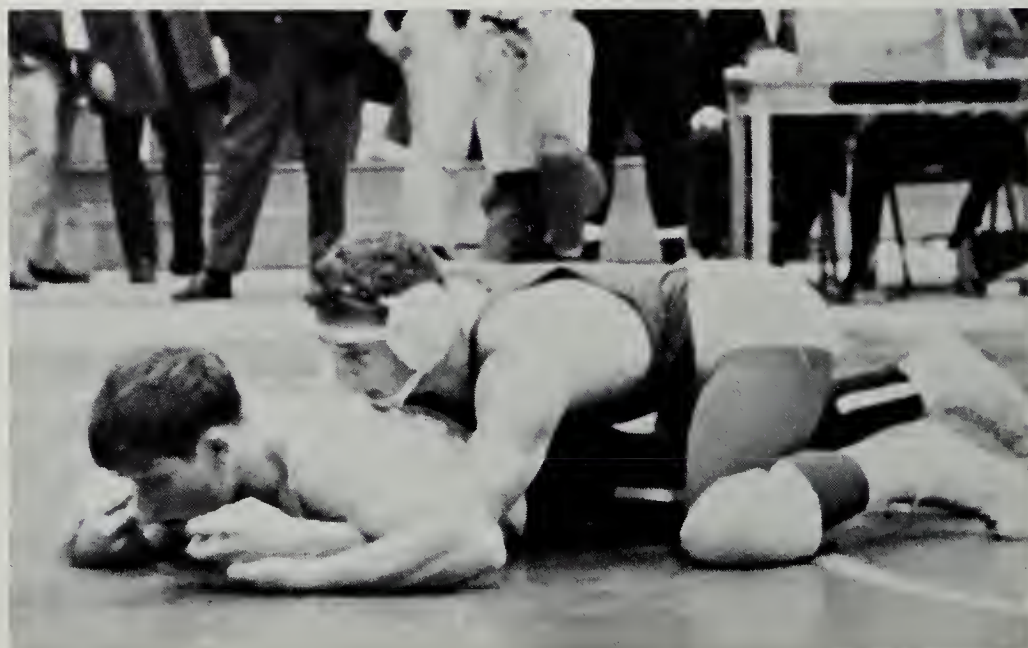

Senior heavyweight John Yonushonis scored more team points than any other Jaguar and had eight pins. John's pins were decisive in wins over Edison and Woodson. Here John beats Jefferson's Tim Tyler, 1-0 in the Regionals.

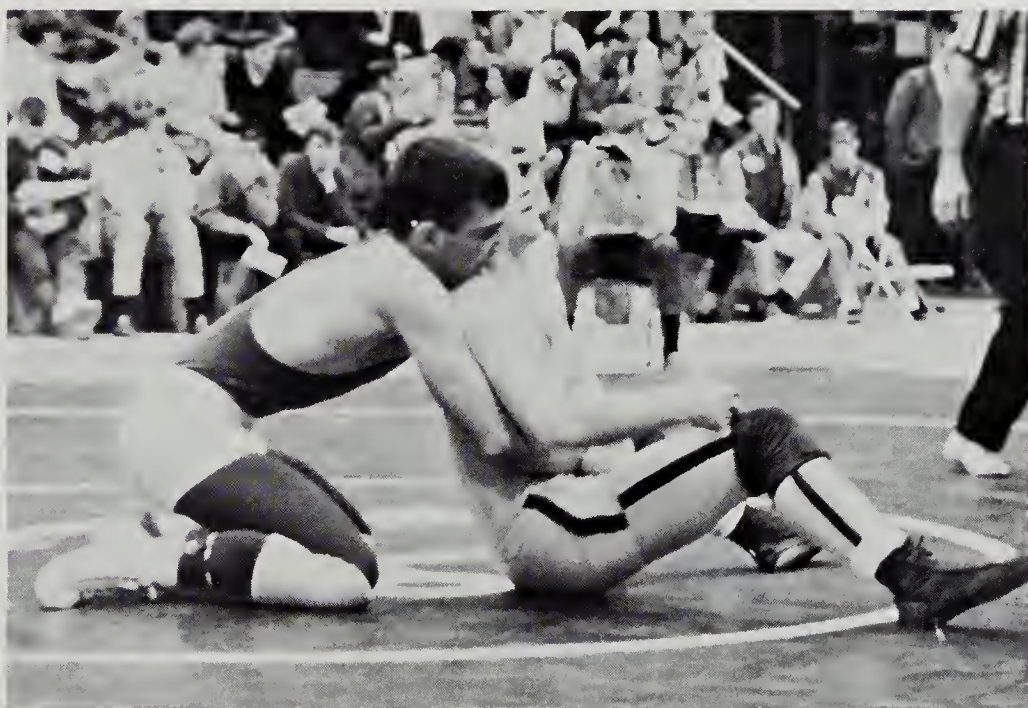

Junior Larry Winstead battles Woodson's Bernd Rothenberg in the Regionals. Winstead paid back one of his four defeats at 133 by beating Rothenberg in this match. Larry won six points in the dual season and along with Godfrey he led the team in reversals.

Norm Canfield won eight matches at 180 with two disadvantages. He was a Sophomore who weighed only 163 pounds. Norm was team leader in near pins and here he wins an 18-2 victory in the Regionals.

Senior Bill Wheeler wrestles W-L's Gerry Quick in the season's last match. Bill was 5-5-1 at 112 and tied Canfield for the team leadership in predicaments.

Jim Farrell underbooks State Champion Brian Taylor in the Regionals. Farrell was hampered by an injury, but still managed three victories at 154 in his Junior year.

Ray Lacy rides W-L's Tom Weldon en route to a 6-0 victory. Ray had an overall record of 8-2 with 4-1 marks at 95 and 103 classes. Lacy, a Junior, was a good methodical worker.

Beginning last June, ten energetic girls worked tirelessly to coordinate the 1965-66 Varsity Cheerleading Squad. The summer months brought tri-weekly sessions interrupted only by a week long visit to National Cheerleading Camp in Virginia Beach. In September the cheerleaders met the school with smiling faces and over twenty new cheers and chants to introduce to their fellow students.

Under the Cheerleading Club, whose members include girls from all the squads—they presented the biggest, longest lasting bonfire in our school's history as a testimony of the year's new spirit. During the season, good luck footballs and basketballs, stars, black eyes, cupcakes, balloons, a rodeo day, pep rallies and a seemingly endless supply of signs were provided to boost the spirit throughout the school.

In December the club sponsored their first annual "Cheerleaders Workshop." More than 150 cheerleaders from area schools were the club's guests as they discussed common problems, enjoyed guest speakers, and presented cheer demonstrations designed to establish or strengthen their roles as leaders of school spirit.

As the cheerleading year drew to a close, the cheerleaders could feel deep satisfaction in their work for "This was the year!" for spirit.

Enthusiastic cheerleaders lead the team on to the field.

"Bazonga!" cries our mascot, Debbie, as she assists cheerleaders during football season.

The girls' varsity basketball squad finished their season with a 3-9 record, but three defeats came in overtime. The loss to Jefferson was in triple overtime. Barbara Ayres and Janet Rich captained the team which was coached by Miss Peggy Dowdy. Chris Andrews had the high game of 23 points against Fairfax. Chris and Janet were the squad's leading scorers.

Girls' Junior Varsity Wins Five Games

The Girls' Junior Varsity team, under Coach Nancy Weisgerber, gave evidence of a brighter future in Falls Church's female basketball by winning five of their twelve contests. The girls' best streak came when they won three of four games with victories over Mount Vernon, Fairfax, and Madison. Pat Sheldon and Jody Lane were the squad's high scorers.

Lack of Height Keeps Frosh Winless

Height was the missing factor in the 1965-66 Freshman basketball team. The 0-10 season almost had a bright spot when the Baby Jags took first place Jefferson into overtime before falling 52-48. Greg Hughes had 23 points in that game and 21 against Madison. Hughes was the leading scorer at 9.8 with Barry Parks at 7.2.

Varsity Baseball Team Boasts Strong Attack

Baseball changed from one extreme to the other at Falls Church this season. After a 12-6 year in 1965 with a good pitching team, the 1966 squad boasted a strong hitting attack with pitching as its biggest problem.

Coach Dale Larsen headed a junior dominated team this year. Shortstop Bruce Boger led the team in hitting during the practice season as well as last year when he was a sophomore. Juniors Steve Parks, John Albritton, Mickey Creel, Bob Sowder, Dennis Crawford, and Billy Wells saw a great deal of action as did Boger.

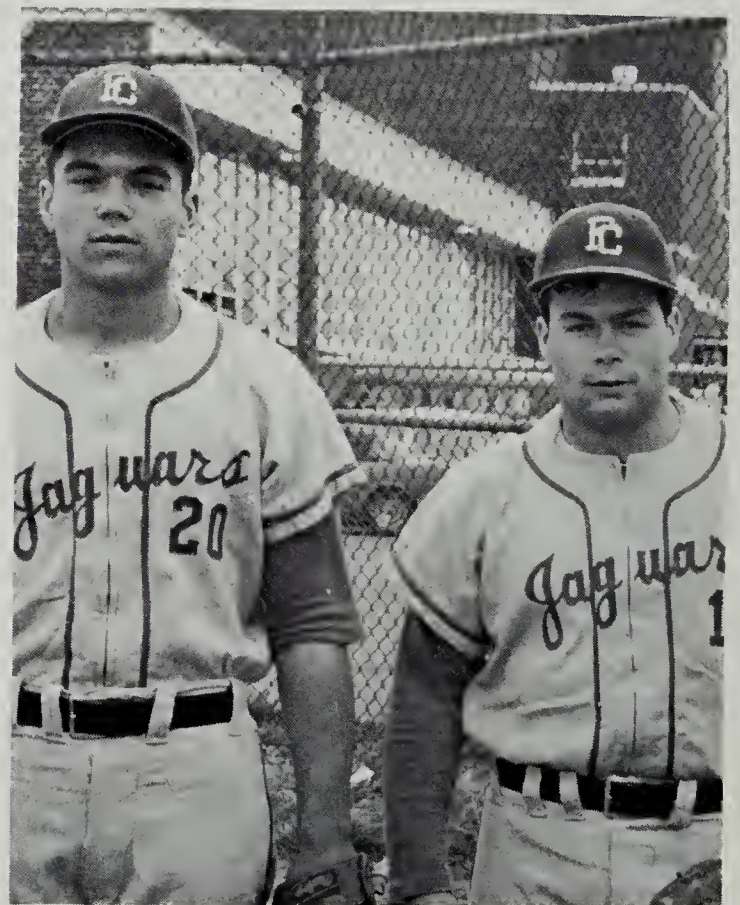

Heading the seniors were the team captains Wally Brown and Milt Fall. Dan Abrams, Rip Ellis, Don Huycke and Gary Young were the other seniors on the squad.

Coach Dale Larsen guided the Jaguar baseball team for the second year.

The Falls Church pitching staff was composed of Don Huycke, Bob Sowder, Bill Wells, Dennis Crawford and Bill Evans.

The Jaguar baseball captains were first baseman Milt Fall and centerfielder Wally Brown. Fall lettered for the third time on varsity while Brown won his second letter.

The Jaguar outfield was Wally Brown, Steve Parks, John Titus, and Woody Hartsook. Bob Sowder also played in the outfield when we wasn't pitching.

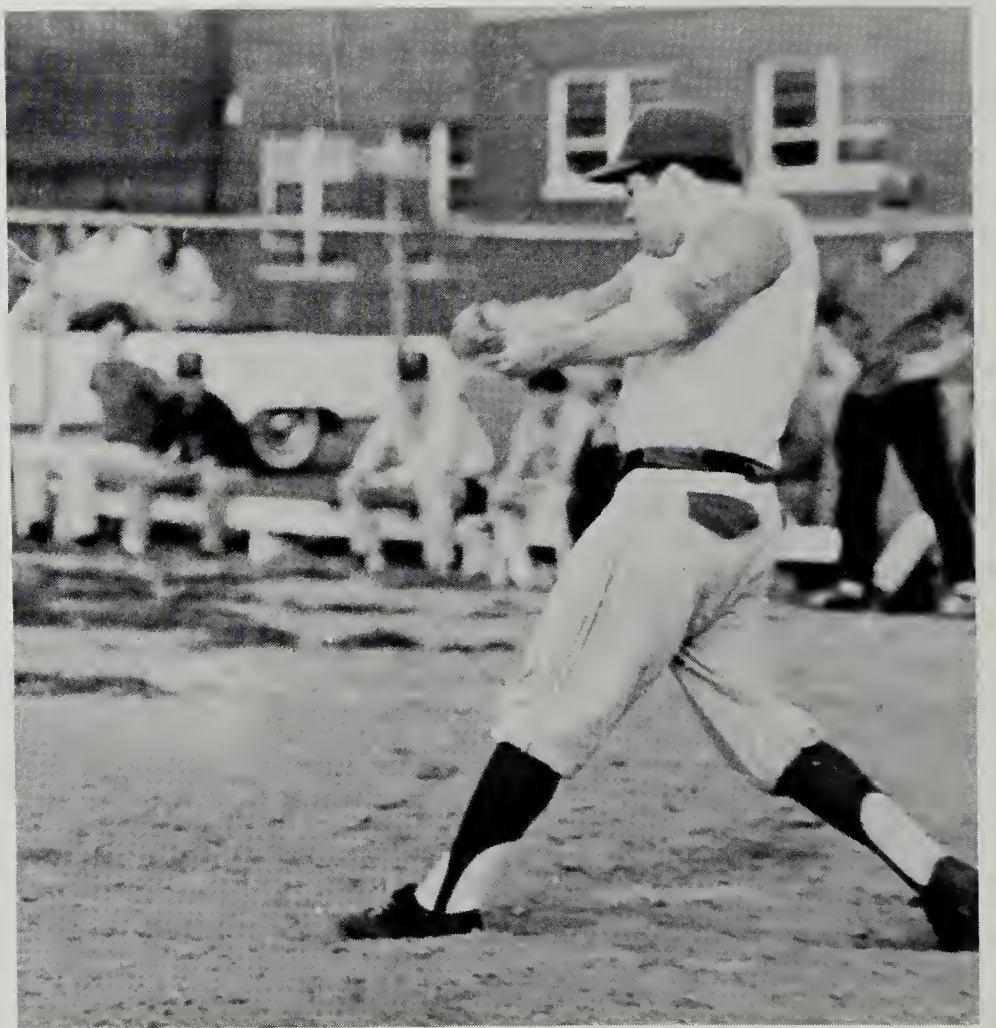

Kneeling: Catchers, DAN ABRAMS AND RIP ELLIS. Standing: First Baseman, MILT FALL; Second Basemen, GARY YOUNG AND MICKEY CREEL; Shortstop, BRUCE BOGER; AND Third Baseman, J. E. ALBRITTON.

Pitcher Dennis Crawford winds up in a scrimmage against T. C. Williams. Crawford worked three scoreless innings. Pitcher Don Huycke serves as umpire.

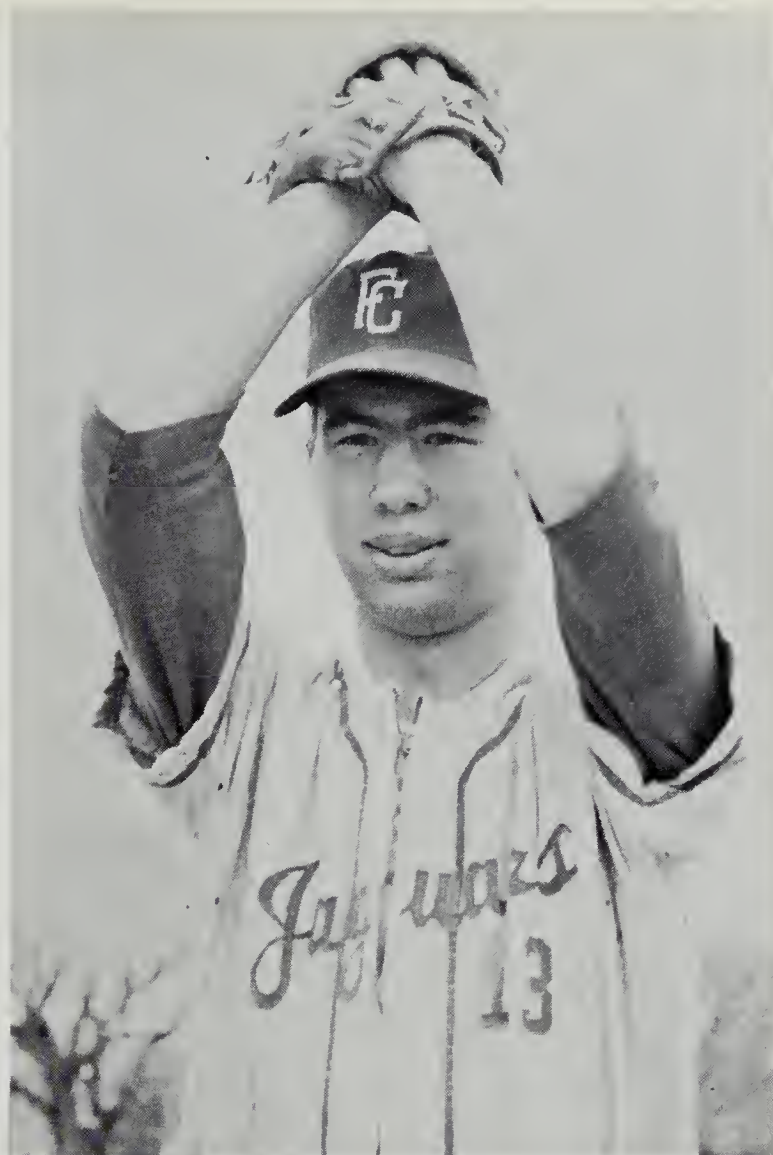

The Jaguar's most versatile player was Johnny Titus who could play any position. Here he watches the batter while playing third base.

Co-captain Wally Brown raps out a base hit against T. C. Williams.

Though only a junior, shortstop Bruce Boger was an acknowledged star of the Jaguars. As a sophomore in 1965, Bruce was the lead-off hitter, led the District in stolen bases and batted .280 to lead the team. He hit .391 in the pre-season practice games and continued to be a consistent hitter.

Pitcher Don Huycke was the team's only returning senior hurler. Huycke relied on a tricky change up and a good curveball to get by Northern Virginia hitters.

The baseball managers were George Reedy and Mark Schliefsstein.

Track Team Has Small But Talented Squad

The Varsity Track Team began its season with many talented and versatile contestants. However, Coach Major Wells noted a lack of depth as the team's weak point.

The relay teams were strong as were Mostyn Jones and Carl Micale in the distance races, Bill Bell in the sprints and pole vault, and Bill Hughes in the shot put.

The big meets were the Fairfax County Relays, the George Washington Relays, the Wakefield Invitational, the Fairfax County Meet, the Northern District Meet, the Northern Virginia Regionals, and the State Meet at William and Mary College.

Experienced Players Help Softball Squad

Home runs, triples, and doubles were constant companions to the 1966 version of the Girls' Varsity Softball Team. Returning to the Varsity were Margie Stacks, Sheila Riffle, Chris Andrews, and Barbara Ayres.

Also returning was coach Nancy Weisgerber, who guided the squad for the second year.

The end to all State Tournament hopes came in the finals of the Northern District Tournament where Woodson stopped the Jags, 63-50. Above, Co-Captains Bob Bowman and Gary Young and Coach Don McCool receive the game ball as runner-ups in the district.

Jag Basketball Team Makes District Finals

Falls Church's Most Valuable Player and All-Northern Virginia Guard, Steve Poucher (51) shoots against the Cavaliers in his patented style.

This was the year for basketball at Falls Church. It was the season to pay back old wounds. Stuart (62-40), McLean (54-52), and Wakefield (50-36) felt the power of a revitalized Jaguar team. District opponents Annandale, Fairfax, Jefferson, and Madison felt defeat more than once from Falls Church's best team ever.

The cheerleaders' cry of "Our team is great" and the crowd shouts of "Eat 'em alive" rang true as the squad, coached by Mr. Don McCool, raced to a 17-3 record and ranked 19th in the Washington area.

Bob Bowman and Gary Young co-captained the squad, while Steve Poucher, Bruce Wright, and junior Bill Oliver completed the starting five.

Coach McCool was honored as runner-up in the Northern Virginia Coach of the Year balloting. Steve Poucher was named to the All-Northern Virginia and All-Northern District Team, while Bob Bowman made the District Team.

Harkey Mayo posts the new student code which was passed with 90.2% of the students in favor.

From bumper stickers to basketball, 1965-66 proved to be a very rewarding and productive year at Falls Church. Prize winners in every department brought pride and honor to Falls Church High School. The best band and the best drum major on the eastern seaboard; a one-act play rated "Superior" at state; a new student code; four Merit Semi-finalists; awards to Seniors from the DAR, Falls Church Boys Club, and the Agricultural Department; a Keyette Club awarded 1st place trophies in talent and achievement and 3rd place in scrapbook at their National Convention; our championship wrestlers and our fabulous basketball team all combined to prove that . . .

This Was

"This Was the Year" bumper stickers were distributed by the cheerleaders at the beginning of the year.

President Nan Hopkinson displays the three trophies won by the Keyette Club at their National Convention.

FCHS is proud to have four seniors as Merit Finalists. Michele Cayot, Carolyn Haack, Gary Young, and Bob Rains rank in the top one half of one per cent of all the high school seniors in the United States.

Regina de Lauder won the "Future Homemakers" Award sponsored by Betty Crocker, and Mary Stites received the DAR Citizenship Award.

The Year!

An outstanding Art Department this year produced winners in several contests. Betty Juncal, Rebecca Moore, and Howard Hershey won keys and recognition in National Scholastic, Dennis Brook was presented with a Certificate of Merit, and James Baker placed first in the Northern Virginia Hallmark Card Contest.
